Dr. Thomas Wirth, M.A. joins SZA Schilling, Zutt & Anschütz as Of Counsel

SZA Schilling, Zutt & Anschütz expands its intellectual property practice as of 1 January 2025 with Dr. Thomas Wirth, M.A.

Dr. Thomas Wirth is a leading intellectual property specialist and has over three decades of experience as an IP lawyer in industry positions (including Volkswagen AG, SEAT S.A., Lion Bioscience AG) and private practice. He is the co-publisher and co-author of a leading commentary on the German Copyright Act.

Dr. Wirth primarily advises research institutions and companies on international technology transfer agreements, research and development agreements and cooperation, license, and distribution agreements. He joins SZA's Mannheim office as Of Counsel, where he will further strengthen the IP team around Dr. Thomas Nägele which advises comprehensively on all matters of IP, IT and data protection law.

"We are very pleased that Dr. Thomas Wirth, a highly qualified expert in the field of intellectual property law, will join our firm. With his many years of experience and extensive knowledge, he will make a valuable contribution to our practice," says partner Dr. Jochem Reichert.

Dr. Thomas Wirth comments on his move: "After about 20 years of practice, I am looking forward to continuing my legal work in an excellent professional and personal environment. As one of the leading independent German business law firms, SZA Schilling, Zutt & Anschütz offers a highly attractive platform for this".
