SZA Schilling, Zutt & Anschütz further expands its legal tech portfolio with Harvey

SZA Schilling, Zutt & Anschütz is one of the first independent German commercial law firms to implement the AI-based “Legal Large Language Model” Harvey.

Harvey is based on OpenAI technology - which is also used by ChatGPT - and was developed specifically for the legal sector. The AI-based platform is particularly suitable for summaries and initial reviews of large volumes of documents. With Harvey, SZA Schilling, Zutt & Anschütz is further expanding its legal tech portfolio.

Dr Philipp Rüppell, Partner at SZA Schilling, Zutt & Anschütz, comments: “The integration of Harvey enables us to further increase the efficiency of our legal work. We are very much looking forward to the cooperation with Harvey.”
